WATCHMEN ON THE WALL — TODAY’S WATCH

Monday, October 5, 2026

INDEX

1. Temple Mount activist Yehuda Glick barred for six months after public prayer — PLAUSIBLE/UNCONFIRMED Reports say Jerusalem police imposed a six-month ban after Glick prayed for a wounded Israeli reservist on the Mount, showing that enforcement remains restrictive even as organized Jewish prayer has expanded.

2. UPDATE — Saudi-backed forces claim first Bab el-Mandeb territorial reversal — PLAUSIBLE/UNCONFIRMED Government forces say they retook most of Dhubab overlooking the strategic strait under heavy Saudi air cover, but the Houthis dispute the battlefield claim.

3. UPDATE — Maritime attacks become daily even as regional oil exports recover — WELL-CORROBORATED Tracking data show September crude exports exceeded prewar levels while a British maritime agency recorded at least one attack per day around Hormuz or the Gulf of Aden since October 2.

1. Temple Mount activist Yehuda Glick barred for six months after public prayer

CONFIDENCE: PLAUSIBLE/UNCONFIRMED

Verified facts: Multiple Israeli outlets report that Jerusalem police served former Knesset member and Temple Mount activist Yehuda Glick with an order barring him from the site from September 24, 2026, through March 24, 2027. Glick says the action followed his recitation of a public Mi Shebeirach prayer for critically wounded IDF reservist Neria Leiter. The available reports rely principally on Glick and the Temple Mount Administration; no public police explanation was located. Israel National News, Matzav.

What changed: Recent festival reporting documented increasingly visible Jewish prayer, prostration, a shofar and silver trumpets on the Mount. This newly reported six-month exclusion is a concrete counter-signal: police enforcement against prominent prayer activism remains substantial rather than uniformly loosening.

Prophetic relevance: The development concerns access and worship at the place central to biblical Temple prophecy, but an administrative ban is not evidence that a Third Temple is imminent. It is most significant as a measure of the unresolved struggle over prayer and authority at the site.

Scripture watch: Daniel 9:27; Matthew 24:15; Revelation 11:1–2.

2. UPDATE — Saudi-backed forces claim first Bab el-Mandeb territorial reversal

CONFIDENCE: PLAUSIBLE/UNCONFIRMED

Verified facts: Yemeni government military sources told Reuters that Saudi-backed forces retook large parts of Dhubab district and positions overlooking Bab el-Mandeb under heavy coalition airstrikes. The Houthis denied the claimed territorial loss. Separately, the Saudi-led coalition confirmed a major air campaign, and the internationally recognized government announced its “Yemen Dawn” offensive. Reuters, Associated Press.

What changed: Yesterday’s development was the launch of a nationwide counteroffensive. Today’s claim is the first reported government gain directly overlooking the strait after September’s Houthi seizure of Yemen’s Red Sea coast; confirmation of control on the ground remains contested.

Prophetic relevance: The battle is drawing Saudi power directly against an Iran-backed force at a global trade chokepoint. This is a meaningful regional alignment and war escalation, but it is not the Israel-directed coalition of Ezekiel 38.

Scripture watch: Ezekiel 38:5–9; Daniel 11; Matthew 24:6–8.

3. UPDATE — Maritime attacks become daily even as regional oil exports recover

CONFIDENCE: WELL-CORROBORATED

Verified facts: Kpler data cited by Reuters show Middle Eastern crude exports averaged 18.5 million barrels per day in September, above the roughly 18 million-barrel prewar average. At the same time, the United Kingdom Maritime Trade Operations agency recorded at least one attack per day in either the Strait of Hormuz or Gulf of Aden from October 2 through October 5. Freight costs remain sharply elevated despite recovering volumes. Reuters export and attack data, Reuters logistics analysis.

What changed: Iran’s refusal to reopen Hormuz under ordinary conditions remains unchanged, but the operational picture has shifted: exporters have restored aggregate flows through workarounds while attacks have become a daily occurrence across the two principal Gulf–Red Sea approaches.

Prophetic relevance: The data show that conflict involving Persia’s regional network can pressure trade and prices without fully stopping supply. That bears watching in relation to war and scarcity themes, but it does not demonstrate the fulfillment of Revelation 6 or Ezekiel 38.

Scripture watch: Ezekiel 38:5–9; Matthew 24:6–7; Revelation 6:5–6.

JEWISH CALENDAR — NEXT 7 DAYS

Monday, October 5 — Israel's national memorial day for the October 7 massacre and Swords of Iron War: The statutory observance falls on 24 Tishrei this year. President Isaac Herzog lowered the flag at 6:29 AM, and state ceremonies are being held at Mount Herzl in Jerusalem. This is a modern national commemoration, not a biblical feast. President of Israel, National Insurance Institute.

Friday evening–Saturday, October 9–10 — Shabbat Bereshit: Jerusalem candle lighting is 5:34 PM Friday. Standard Havdalah is 6:49 PM Saturday; communities following the 72-minute custom conclude at approximately 7:25 PM. The Torah-reading cycle begins again with Genesis 1:1–6:8, emphasizing creation, human calling and the entrance of sin.

Saturday evening–Sunday, October 10–11 — Rosh Chodesh Cheshvan begins: The two-day observance begins after Shabbat at nightfall Saturday and continues through Monday night; Sunday is 30 Tishrei and the first Rosh Chodesh day. New-month worship is grounded in Numbers 10:10 and Numbers 28:11–15. Hebcal Jerusalem calendar, Hebcal Rosh Chodesh Cheshvan.

Jewish days begin at sunset. Candle lighting precedes sunset, while Havdalah and festival endings follow halachic nightfall and therefore vary by convention.

SIGNS & ANNIVERSARY WATCH

October 6: The waning crescent Moon appears near Jupiter before dawn.

October 8–9: The Draconid meteor shower is predicted to peak near 01:00 UTC October 9 — 9:00 PM Eastern October 8. Dark, nearly moonless skies improve visibility, but the shower is a recurring passage through debris from comet 21P/Giacobini–Zinner, not an anomalous sign.

October 10 at approximately 11:50 AM Eastern: New moon. It closely precedes Rosh Chodesh because the Hebrew calendar is lunisolar; the correspondence is calendrical, not evidence of an extraordinary omen. No solar or lunar eclipse occurs in this seven-day window. Timeanddate Draconids, Space.com October sky guide.

October 5: Israel marks its statutory national memorial day three years after the October 7, 2023 massacre.

October 6: The Yom Kippur War began October 6, 1973 — 53 years ago.

October 7: The Hamas-led attack occurred October 7, 2023 — 3 years ago.

Modern State of Israel: Established May 14, 1948 — 78 years ago.

Jerusalem: Israel captured East Jerusalem and the Old City during the June 1967 Six-Day War — 59 years ago.

The establishment of the State of Israel and Israel's later capture of East Jerusalem are distinct historical events; Jerusalem is a city, not a nation.

ANTICHRIST WATCH — BIBLICAL TRAITS, NOT ACCUSATIONS

No new candidate-relevant development.

This is a watchlist of documented traits and actions, not identification of any living person. Relevant biblical markers include extraordinary ascent and authority, a pivotal covenant involving Israel, exceptional political-military power, self-exaltation, blasphemy and persecution.
