INDEX

1. UPDATE — Houthis strike Aden airport and launch fresh missiles toward Riyadh and southwest Saudi Arabia — WELL-CORROBORATED A missile landed near Aden’s runway minutes before a passenger flight was due while Saudi defenses intercepted ballistic missiles near Riyadh and Khamis Mushait, extending the Iran-linked war to civilian aviation on both sides of the border.

2. UPDATE — Russian missile-and-drone barrage kills at least 19 across Ukraine — WELL-CORROBORATED One of Russia’s heaviest recent aerial attacks struck Kyiv and roughly a dozen regions, killing four children among at least 19 civilians while Ukraine’s Patriot interceptor shortage deepened.

1. UPDATE — Houthis strike Aden airport and launch fresh missiles toward Riyadh and southwest Saudi Arabia

CONFIDENCE: WELL-CORROBORATED

Verified facts: Yemen’s Transport Ministry and Aden authorities said Houthi ballistic missiles and explosive drones targeted Aden International Airport early Wednesday. One missile landed near the runway minutes before a Cairo flight was due; the flight was diverted, aircraft on the ground were moved, and no casualties were reported. The Houthis said they targeted a nearby military camp, while Aden police described the airport itself as the target. Reuters, Associated Press.

Saudi Arabia’s coalition separately reported intercepting ballistic missiles north of Riyadh and toward Khamis Mushait. The Houthis also claimed attacks on Riyadh’s King Khalid airport, Abha airport and military sites; Saudi authorities confirmed the interceptions but had not confirmed every claimed target. Flight-tracking data showed brief disruption at Riyadh.

What changed: Previous briefings documented attacks on Saudi airports and a government counteroffensive near Bab el-Mandeb. The Houthis have now opened a new attack line against Aden’s principal civilian airport while again reaching toward the Saudi capital. Reuters also reports that Monday’s government claim of having reached Mocha was premature, leaving control of the coastal advance less settled than initially presented.

Prophetic relevance: The conflict links an Iran-aligned force, a Saudi–Türkiye–Pakistan defense arrangement, civilian aviation and the two maritime approaches around Hormuz and Bab el-Mandeb. This is a material widening of regional war and pressure on trade, but it does not establish Ezekiel 38’s Israel-directed coalition or a specific prophetic timetable.

Scripture watch: Ezekiel 38:5–13; Matthew 24:6–8; Revelation 6:5–6.

2. UPDATE — Russian missile-and-drone barrage kills at least 19 across Ukraine

CONFIDENCE: WELL-CORROBORATED

Verified facts: Ukrainian officials said Russia launched waves of missiles and drones against Kyiv and about a dozen other regions overnight. The Associated Press reported at least 19 civilians killed, including four children, and around 60 wounded. A missile destroyed part of an apartment building in Pryluky, where officials reported 13 deaths. Russia’s Defense Ministry acknowledged a “massive” strike but said it targeted military-industrial, port and ship-repair facilities. Associated Press, Reuters.

Ukraine said the barrage included approximately 70 missiles, many of them ballistic, and that energy infrastructure was a principal target. Kyiv had advance warning but could not stop the attack completely; Ukrainian officials say Patriot interceptors are scarce while competing demand from the Iran war strains available supplies.

What changed: Earlier briefings tracked the expanding Russia–Ukraine drone war and Russian attacks on Ukrainian infrastructure. This barrage produced one of the deadliest recent civilian tolls and exposed a new strategic connection: Middle East demand is reducing the air-defense ammunition available to Ukraine.

Prophetic relevance: Russia’s continued aggression, concentrated military authority and the cross-theater competition for weapons merit observation within the broader biblical watch on wars and national realignment. The attack has no demonstrated connection to Israel and does not identify Russia as Gog.

Scripture watch: Matthew 24:6–7; Luke 21:9–10; Ezekiel 38:1–9.

JEWISH CALENDAR — NEXT 7 DAYS

Friday evening–Saturday, October 9–10 — Shabbat Bereshit: Jerusalem candle lighting is 5:34 PM Friday. Standard Havdalah is 6:49 PM Saturday; later customs vary. The annual Torah-reading cycle begins again with Genesis 1:1–6:8, emphasizing creation, human vocation and the entrance of sin.

Saturday evening–Monday, October 10–12 — Rosh Chodesh Cheshvan: The two-day observance begins after nightfall Saturday and ends at nightfall Monday. Sunday is 30 Tishrei and Monday is 1 Cheshvan. New-month worship is grounded in Numbers 10:10 and Numbers 28:11–15. Hebcal Jerusalem calendar.

Jewish days begin at sunset. Candle lighting precedes sunset, while Havdalah and observance endings follow halachic nightfall and vary by convention.

SIGNS & ANNIVERSARY WATCH

October 8–9: The Draconid meteor shower peaks beginning around 9:00 PM Eastern Thursday, approximately 01:00 UTC Friday. A nearly new Moon provides dark viewing conditions; NASA's 2026 forecast expects ordinary low activity, not an unusual outburst.

October 10 at 11:50 AM Eastern — New moon: The phase closely precedes Rosh Chodesh because the Hebrew calendar is lunisolar. No solar or lunar eclipse occurs during the next seven days. These are predictable astronomical events with no demonstrated prophetic significance. NASA October skywatching, NASA 2026 meteor forecast.

October 7 — Hamas-led attack: The October 7, 2023 attack, in which about 1,200 people in Israel were killed and 251 were taken hostage, occurred 3 years ago. Reuters anniversary report.

Modern State of Israel: Established May 14, 1948 — 78 years ago.

Jerusalem: Israel captured East Jerusalem and the Old City during the June 1967 Six-Day War — 59 years ago.

The establishment of the State of Israel, Israel's later capture of East Jerusalem and the October 7 attack are distinct historical events; Jerusalem is a city, not a nation.

ANTICHRIST WATCH — BIBLICAL TRAITS, NOT ACCUSATIONS

No new candidate-relevant development.

This remains a watchlist of documented traits and actions, not identification of any living person. Relevant biblical markers include extraordinary ascent and authority, a pivotal covenant involving Israel, exceptional political-military power, self-exaltation, blasphemy and persecution.

Key passages: Daniel 7; Daniel 9:27; Daniel 11; 2 Thessalonians 2; Revelation 13; 1 John 2.

What to Watch Next

1. Whether the Houthis repeat attacks on Aden's airport or Saudi civilian aviation and whether Riyadh retaliates against launch sites around Sanaa.
2. Whether government forces secure Dhubab and the highlands east of Bab el-Mandeb, or whether the premature Mocha claim signals a stalled counteroffensive.
3. Which Turkish or Pakistani forces and capabilities are actually deployed under the Makkah defense arrangement.
4. Whether Ukraine receives additional Patriot interceptors or the Iran war continues to divert scarce air-defense ammunition.
5. Any material Temple Mount prayer, access, enforcement, Third Temple or red-heifer development.
